

Red Funnel Annual Statement: Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking

Introduction

Under the Modern Slavery Act 2015 Red Funnel is required to publish a Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement for each financial year, setting out the steps Red Funnel has taken to address the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in its operations and within the supply chain.

This is the statement for the year ended 31st December 2018.

Red Funnel

The Red Funnel Group operates ferries between Southampton and the Isle of Wight 365 days a year, carrying around 3.4m passengers and 0.9m vehicles every year.

Approach to Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking

Red Funnel is committed to conducting business with integrity and in an ethical and socially responsible way, and its core values; “Professional, Caring, Friendly and Ambitious” underpin all aspects of trading and operation.

Red Funnel has a number of policies that assist in the approach to the identification of modern slavery risks and the steps to be taken to prevent slavery and human trafficking in its operations including a Whistle blowing policy and a CSR Policy Statement. In addition to these policies and related training, awareness of modern slavery issues has been raised by staff training and awareness at all levels of the company explaining: -

- The basic principles of the Modern Slavery Act 2015;
- How employers can identify and prevent slavery and human trafficking;
- What employees can do to flag up potential slavery or human trafficking issues to the relevant parties within the organisation; and
- External help available e.g. through the National Modern Slavery Helpline.

Supply Chain.

Red Funnel sources goods and materials from many parts of the world and is committed to establishing and maintaining a competitive, reliable and sustainable supply chain, and to always act in an ethical and socially responsible manner at all times. Red Funnel has a Code of Conduct for Suppliers. which applies to all suppliers of goods and services to Red Funnel.

www.redfunnel.co.uk

Red Funnel is committed to ensuring that suppliers adhere to the highest standard of ethics.

Suppliers are required to demonstrate that they provide safe working conditions where necessary, treat workers with dignity and respect, and act ethically and within the law in their use of labour.

Responsibility

The Board of Red Funnel has overall responsibility for ensuring that legal and ethical obligations relating to Slavery and Human Trafficking are met. This statement looks at the actions taken by the Red Funnel Group to address the requirements of the 2015 Modern Slavery Act.

The statement has been approved by the Red Funnel Board, July 2019.

Kevin George
Chairman of the Red Funnel Group